Come read about the conversion of Wissam on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.

Last Wednesday night, after Bible study, several of us participated in a shared reading of Wissam's conversion. It took place in the home of Curtis and Carol (404 E. Sul Ross or right next door to the church building). We had a light meal and read I Am An Arab and I Am A Christian. We will continue this activity each Wednesday night until we finish the book. We end promptly at 7:30 so families can get night time routines accomplished.

Welcome Home to Alpine church of Christ

February 17, 2019

Ordinary people serving an extraordinary God.

A version of "Ask and ye will receive"

Last Sunday evening Nicholas asked his grandpa, "When are we going to have another singing night?" Glen Dale responded with, "Ask Curtis." Nicholas did, and the rest is now history.

Friday, February 20

Don't forget game night. It begins at 6 p.m. with food, games, and fellowship until you have to leave. Come enjoy yourself!

GREAT attendance last Sunday evening!

Last Sunday evening we had a special treat. Various men of the congregation took turns leading singing. Russ, Mark, James, Charles, Glen Dale, Joe, and Nicholas all participated. It is really inspiring to have so many song leading options in a congregation of 35. We'll try this again in two weeks (our last Sunday of the month had been our regular singing night. We will get back in the swing of things. Thank you Nicholas!

Want to receive an online version of the weekly Alpine church bulletin?

Cherry Jones has placed a sign up sheet in the foyer. If you would like to receive an online version of the bulletin, just place your name and email address on the sheet and she will make sure you receive a copy of the bulletin. Another option is to go to our website address (alpinechurchtx.org), click on bulletins, and you will have access to a month of our bulletins.
