Welcome Home to Alpine church of Christ

March 08, 2020

Ordinary people serving an extraordinary God.

Evening assembly flourishes

Our evening assembly may be moving to 1 p.m. for the rest of the Spring. Members decided to meet 5 hours earlier in the day. The church eats lunch in the annex or on their own at noon, then reassembles at 1:00 p.m. The men lead songs, read scriptures, and take turns giving devotional talks.

Happy Birthday Ollie May Wood		6 p.m. College Bible study In annex	5:15 p.m. Bible class Aufdengarten Anniversary		Happy Birthday Caleb Hughes

Two birthdays and one anniversary this week. Be sure to check the online calendar for additional special events this month.

Join our Sunday evening assembly at 1 p.m.

Our Sunday evening assembly has moved to 1 p.m. and has a new format. Members share in leading singing, prayers, and giving devotional talks. This is an ideal time to learn how to be involved in our assemblies.

This week, Mark will bring our devotional talk. Volunteer to give a talk. It can be one minute or as long as you would like. Have you ever prepared a talk? See Curtis and he will help you plan a talk. If you simply desire more time to encourage your brother or sister in Christ, join us at 1 p.m.

What do you do for lunch? Go out to eat or join us in the annex. There will be enough food for everybody. Lasagna, spaghetti, and sandwiches are available today.

Join us on Wednesday at 5:15 p.m. in the annex.

God vs. Science

'Let me explain the problem science has with religion.' The atheist professor of philosophy pauses before his class and then asks one of his new students to stand.

'You're a Christian, aren't you, son?'

'Yes sir,' the student says.

'So you believe in God?'

'Absolutely.'

Is God good?'

'Sure! God's good.'

'Is God all-powerful? Can God do anything?'

'Yes'

'Are you good or evil?'

'The Bible says I'm evil.'

The professor grins knowingly.

'Aha! The Bible! He considers for a moment.

'Here's one for you. Let's say there's a sick person over here and you can cure him.

You can do it. Would you help him? Would you try?'

'Yes sir, I would.'
