Welcome to the Alpine church of Christ

April 10, 2022

Ordinary people serving an extraordinary God.

What do the plants in this picture have to do with the day of judgment (Matthew 13:24-30)?

Last Wednesday evening, a group of Alpine church members met in the annex for Sloppy Joes, then singing and Bible study. We meet every Wednesday in April for a study of Jesus' parables. This past study was on the parable of the weeds, Matthew 13:24-30, using Jesus' explanation (Matt. 13:36-43). Through small group activities, we shared pertinent reflections. Chris shared that there will be no middle ground on the day of judgment, as we are either tares or wheat. The point is that we need to make a choice and follow through on that commitment.
