Welcome Home to Alpine church of Christ

June 14, 2020

Ordinary people serving an extraordinary God.

Where do we go from here?

Is it time to decide what to add and when? Are we ready to begin meeting on Wednesday night? Shall we begin the process of classes for all ages on Sunday morning? Are we ready to meet on Sunday afternoon or evening? What do you want to do?

Time to Share the Learning!

Curtis finishes the Graduate Certification classes in Conflict Management and Resolution next Saturday, June 20. He anxiously awaits sharing this information with others. “Disputes are bound to happen in professional settings and in our personal lives. Negotiation, conflict resolution and collaboration skills are highly valued – and greatly needed – in today’s workplace. In fact, conflict resolution-related positions are expected to grow faster than the average occupation, according to the Department of Labor... In ACU Online's graduate Certificate in Conflict Management and Resolution program, you will develop the knowledge and skills necessary to help you manage conflict effectively and professionally in the classroom and boardroom while fostering relationships and successfully moving parties to agreement.”

CASA Update

January 20, 2019 -Curtis asks congregation at family meeting whether he should become a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA). Those at the meeting unanimously said yes. The idea from Curtis was to expand his contacts in the community.

From 5-12-2019 “Timeline” document

Community contact from the CASA initiative:

1. 3 district judges and their court staff.
2. CASA lawyers as well as lawyers of each child and parent.
3. CASA leadership (3) in Brewster and surrounding counties.
4. 5 additional CASA volunteers.
5. Children protected by the court. I am appointed by the court as “guardian ad litem” of 13 children as of May, 2020.
6. I also interact with four elementary schools, two middle-schools and five placements for the children.
7. When I wear my CASA shirt while walking I am stopped by people and asked if I am a volunteer, then thanked for my service.
