Each Wednesday night the adult class sends out encouragement cards to visitors as well as members with birthdays, special needs, anniversaries, etc. Dale Burris visited recently and writes, "Curt, thank you and the rest of the Alpine church for the wonderful card you sent. That was great. That was a real uplift! Thank you, thank you!"

Dying to Self

When you are forgotten, or neglected, or purposely set at naught, and you don't sting or hurt with the insults or the oversight, but your heart is happy, being counted worthy to suffer for Christ,
THAT IS DYING TO SELF.

When your good is evil spoken of, when your wishes are crossed, your advice disregarded, your opinions ridiculed, and you refuse to let anger rise in your heart, or even defend yourself, but take it all in patient loving silence,
THAT IS DYING TO SELF.

When you lovingly and patiently bear any disorder, any irregularity, and impunctuality, or any annoyance, when you stand face-to-face with waste, folly, extravagance, spiritual insensibility-- and endure it as Jesus endured,
THAT IS DYING TO SELF.

When you never care to refer to yourself in conversation, or to record your own goods, or itch after commendations, when you can truly love to be unknown,
THAT IS DYING TO SELF.

When you can see your brother prosper and have his needs met and can honestly rejoice with him in spirit and feel no envy, nor question God, while your own needs are far greater and in desperate circumstances,
THAT IS DYING TO SELF.

When you can receive correction and reproof from one of less stature than yourself and can humbly submit inwardly as well as outwardly, finding no rebellion or resentment rising up within your heart,
THAT IS DYING TO SELF.
