Gratefulness is Worship

Our thanks and praise to God pleases Him. When we humble ourselves before the Almighty, we are brought to our place. King David, even with his power and influence, considered himself a servant of the Lord. He was overwhelmed by the majesty of God almighty; he wrote songs to God. He danced before Him, and yes, shamelessly.

King David spent long days taking care of sheep, didn't get recognition immediately for his abilities because of his stature in the family, became king with no prior experience, was chased by bandits, his life was threatened even by his own sons, and took refuge in caves. It is King David who killed Goliath, tore a lion, and committed adultery. He was not perfect, yet his song was:

"I love you, Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

I called to the Lord, who is worthy of praise, and I have been saved from my enemies. The cords of death entangled me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me. The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

In my distress I called to the Lord; I cried to my God for help. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came before him, into his ears."

Psalm 18:1-6

King David remembered, he was aware, he was humble, and he worshiped God. His humility kept him from pride when things were going well.
