Welcome to the Alpine church of Christ

December 04, 2022

Ordinary people serving an extraordinary God.

It is that time of year! Begin thinking of what you want in 2023. What worked in 2022?

Being a doer of the Word

“But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.”

James 1:22

Divine interaction begins with God but quickly morphs into how we treat others. Our day-to-day interaction with fellow man reflects the status of our spiritual connection. “One of the places that we live out the drama of our personal and social narratives is in our daily work” (Keller, 2016, p. 159). What we do at work extends who we are and how well we have embraced God’s nature.

Keller’s media clip (2022) shares Martin Luther’s disdain for the medieval view of a division between worldly work and Christian work. Our personal life drama includes players from all subplots of our storyline and ties with all problems we face.

In other words, cheating on taxes is as much a God problem as it is an IRS problem. Lying to a boss is the same as lying to our Creator. The local church is a community of practice and a way to share the script of life before the cameras start rolling.
