Make a Difference!

Curtis Wubben, a CASA volunteer, represents the children of three families as a guardian ad litem. Looking to the best interest of displaced children, Curtis seeks opportunities to offer some normalcy in life. All eight children, assigned to the state of Texas, need love and support. Won't you help?

Deadline for gifts: Wednesday, December 18, 2019.

These children are placed hours away from Alpine, so I need Thursday, Dec. 19, to distribute the gifts. Anything new or used is appreciated.

Do not wrap the gifts. I need to declare what we are sending. I will assemble a team of wrappers on Thursday. If interested, meet me in the annex on Thursday at noon. I will have wrapping paper and needed supplies.

Gifts are needed for:

Family 1:

Boy, age 10—loves Legos, Super Heroes, and cars

Girl, age 9—loves beads, sparkly things, and books

Boy, age 7—loves anything his older brother has

Boy, age 5—loves animals and Legos

Family 2:

Boy, age 8—frisbee, baseball, basketball, and trading cards

Family 3:

Boy, age 13 in a few days—2 gift cards. I will be visiting him with a birthday cake and present in addition to the Christmas gift.

Girl, age 17—gift card

Girl, age 19—gift card
